Home Court of the Knicks — Madison Square Garden

1961-62 NEW YORK KNICKERBOCKERS

COACH EDDIE DONOVAN

Eddie Donovan is a mild-mannered, 38-year old crew-cut native of Elizabeth, N. J., who was eminently successful as St. Bonaventure University coach for eight years. He led St. Bonaventure to the final of the 1960 Holiday Festival, in Madison Square Garden, losing to Ohio State by two points. The Bonnies also competed in the 1961 National Collegiate Championship and in four straight National Invitations. His eight-year won-loss record at St. Bonaventure was 139-57. Last season the Bonnies won 24, lost 4.

Donovan was named 1961 "Coach of the Year" by the New York Basketball Writers Association. His Bonnies last season were repeatedly No. 2 or No. 3 in national polls conducted by the Associated Press and United Press-International, alternating with Bradley and Cincinnati for the No. 2 spot.

Donovan signed a two-year contract as coach of the New York Knicks, May 8, 1961, replacing Carl Braun who had held the post since Dec. 18, 1959. "I don't believe Eddie's lack of experience in professional basketball will be a handicap," said Ned Irish, president of Madison Square Garden. "He has seen the Knicks in person and on television frequently as well as the other clubs in the NBA. His St. Bonaventure teams always gave a fine account of themselves, even when they were overmatched in personnel. I'm confident he'll do a good job with the Knicks."

Donovan enrolled at St. Bonaventure in September, 1946. He played basketball three years, but retired in his senior season to coach the freshman team. Following a four-year Navy hitch he joined the St. Bonaventure faculty in 1953 after teaching in the Olean, N. Y. public school system and coaching the Olean High School team. His two-year scholastic record was 30 victories in 39 starts, including a sectional championship.

Eddie developed Tom Stith, All-America selection the last two years. Stith was runner-up to Oscar Robertson in national scoring in 1960 with a 31.5 average and third last season with a 29.6 norm.

GEORGE BLANEY

Age*—22, born in Jersey City, N. J., Nov. 12, 1939

Height*—6 feet 1 inch. Weight—175 pounds

Home*—Jersey City, N. J. College—Holy Cross

Last season Blaney was co-captain and star playmaker of Holy Cross, which won third place in the 1961 National Invitation Tournament in Madison Square Garden. He was one of the individual stars of the NIT, averaging 17 points for the four games. He scored 25 against Detroit, shooting a sensational 11 for 14 field goal attempts, including a string of six straight in the first half. He hit on 9 of 12 versus Providence in the semi-final. His tourney totals were 52 shots taken, 31 made for a .596 percentage. Blaney was a three-year starter for Holy Cross, winning All-New England honors as a sophomore. He averaged 11 assists for the Crusaders last season—13 in one stretch of 10 games—and was the team's mainstay on defense. Offensively, he was third to teammates John Foley and Tim Shea in all departments with a better than 12-point average. Blaney earned six letters in basketball and baseball at St. Peter's Prep, in Jersey City, and was voted Hudson County's outstanding athlete for 1957. He was a sophomore on the St. Peter's team which won the county, state and Jesuit championships and lost a triple overtime in the final of the Washington, D. C. tournament. Fine one-hand jump shooter from in front or in corners and tough to defense on drives.

CLEVELAND BUCKNER

Age*—23, born in Yazoo County, Miss., Aug. 17, 1938

Height*—6 feet 7 inches. Weight—210 pounds

Home*—Yazoo City, Miss. College—Jackson State

Buckner, a Knick rookie, was named to the all-NAIA team the past two seasons (the only repeater) and was a member of the U. S. squad for the Olympic trials at Denver in 1960. He led the Southwest Athletic Conference in field goal percentage last year with .605, averaging 21.9 points for 26 games. He was runner-up in league rebounds with a 20.9 norm. In 1959-60 Buckner was second in NAIA rebounding with a 25.5 average while averaging 23.5 points. Red Holzman, of the Knicks' scouting staff, said Buckner can play the pivot and the outside where he makes good use of an accurate jump shot. "For a big fellow, Buckner is a very fine ball handler," said Holzman. "He has strong hands and split-second timing in hitting the open man for the good shot." Buckner, or "Bucky" as he likes to be called, is married. Wife's name is Joeneta. Started playing basketball in his senior year in high school.

DAVE BUDD

Age*—23, born in Woodbury, N. J., Oct. 28, 1938

Height*—6 feet 6 inches. Weight—210 pounds

Home*—Woodbury, N. J. College—Wake Forest

The former Wake Forest star was the Knicks' No. 2 draft choice in 1960. He developed gradually last season, his first in the pros, and was regarded as one of the most promising newcomers to the NBA. Just when he was tabbed for a starting role in the second half of the 1960-61 campaign, Budd suffered a severe and prolonged virus and missed the Knicks' final 15 games. He scored 399 points, grabbed 297 rebounds and his 432 field goal percentage was second best on the club. Dick Garmaker led with .445. Dave led Wake Forest in scoring and rebounding in his sophomore and junior years. He sparked the Deacons to the 1959 Dixie Classic championship and to a first place tie with North Carolina in the Atlantic Coast Conference. His varsity totals at Wake Forest were 1,014 points, a 13.5 average for 75 games, and 682 rebounds, a 9.1 norm. His best Deacon season was as a sophomore when he scored 364 points, averaging 15.8, to be named to the second team All-ACC. His figures last season with the Knicks:

JOHNNY GREEN

Age*—28, born in Dayton, Ohio, Dec. 8, 1933

Height*—6 feet 5 inches. Weight—200 pounds

Home*—Dayton, Ohio. College—Michigan State

The former Michigan State star, co-captain of the 1959 Big Ten champion, showed marked improvement last season as a pro sophomore with the Knicks. He scored 787 points for a 10.2 average and grabbed 818 rebounds for runner-up spot in that department to Willie Naulls. In his first campaign with New York, 1959-60, Green had 481 points for a 7.0 norm and 539 rebounds. For his height, 6-5, Johnny is considered the best jumper in the NBA and, in the past two years, had some memorable nights against the 7-1 Wilt Chamberlain. In September of 1960 Green was the standout player in the Knicks' training camp with his hustle, scoring and rebounding, but he had to undergo surgery and missed three weeks of conditioning. At Michigan State, Johnny was named to the All-Big Ten team three straight years. His career total of 1,062 points was third highest in Spartan history. He set a Big Ten record during the 1957-58 campaign for the best field goal percentage with .538. Never played high school basketball. Learned the sport while serving with the Marines. Unanimous selection for the all-service five after leading Atsugi Air Base (Japan) to the Central Command crown. Amazing leaper, easily clearing the rim of the basket.

RICHIE GUERIN

Age*—29, born in Bronx, N. Y., May 29, 1932

Height*—6 feet 4 inches. Weight—195 pounds

Home*—Huntington Station, N. Y. College—Iona

This is Guerin's sixth season with the Knicks. The versatile backcourt man led the clubs in scoring for 1959-60 with 1,615 points, a 21.8 average. Last season he raised his point total to 1,720 but was runner-up to Willie Naulls. Richie topped the Knicks in assists the past three years and he is a surprisingly skilled rebounder for his height. Guerin was the third highest scoring guard in the NBA last season, trailing only Oscar Robertson (Cincinnati) and Gene Shue (Detroit). He was most effective facing the stronger rivals, averaging 23.6 points against Philadelphia; 23.3 versus Boston and 21.6 against St. Louis. He had a notable night in Boston last Feb. 11 when he made 22 of 23 foul shots, an NBA high for the campaign, against the Celtics. But his greatest evening was in Madison Square Garden, Dec. 11, 1959, when he scored 57 points against Syracuse, an all-time Knick high. His exploits earned him selection to the East squad for the last four NBA East-West All-Star Games. Guerin scored 519 points for a 24.7 average at Iona College in 1953-54 to lead the New York area. He was drafted by the Knicks in 1954, but served two years with the Quantico Marines. He was second to Kenny Sears for team scoring in 1958-59 with 1,291 points, an 18.2 average.

DARRALL IMHOFF

Age*—23, born in Los Angeles, Oct. 11, 1938

Height*—6 feet 10 inches. Weight—220 pounds

Home*—Palo Alto, Calif. College—California

This is the big California's second season with the New York Knicks. He didn't see much action last year, playing 994 minutes in 62 games. He scored 293 points and took 296 rebounds. Imhoff was a unanimous All-America selection in his final season at California and a member of the 1960 championship U. S. Olympic team at Rome. In college play his forte was defense, but he led California in scoring as a senior with 410 points for a 13.7 average and was runner-up in 1958-59 with an 11.5 norm. Both years he led the Bears in rebounds—371 as a senior and 318 as a junior. Imhoff made the all-tournament team in every post-season and pre-season event in which he played, including the All-NCAA final at Louisville in 1959 and at San Francisco in 1960. He was voted All-Northern California player-of-the-year in both 1959 and 1960. Five times in 1960 Imhoff topped the 20-point mark, an outstanding accomplishment for the defense-minded Bears. His season high was 25 against Oscar Robertson-led Cincinnati in California's 77-69 victory in the NCAA Western championship game. Darrall was the leading rebounder, with 14, in the 1960 East-West Game in Madison Square Garden. He is a natural southpaw.

Age*—28, born in Lakeport, Calif., Sept. 12, 1933
Height*—6 feet 10 inches. Weight—215 pounds
Home*—Tacoma, Wash. College—Whitworth (Wash.)

Jordon, who first joined the Knicks in 1957 and was sold to the Detroit Pistons the following season, returned to New York last Jan. 18, 1961, when he was purchased from the Cincinnati Royals. In 31 games with the Knicks he averaged 13.1 points and was fourth in rebounds. His overall totals for 79 games (48 with the Royals) were 928 points, for an 11.7 average, and 674 rebounds. Jordon was one of the top scorers for Detroit in 1958-59 with a 14.3 norm and the following season, with Cincinnati, hit at a 13.4 pace. He was the Royals' hero when they ended the Boston Celtics' streak of 17 straight, Jan. 1, 1960. Jordon scored 31 points and grabbed 20 rebounds. Jordon, a Northern California Wilacki Indian, is one of the tallest players in the NBA at 6-10. He can play either the pivot or a forward position. His best evening as a collegian at Whitworth was 48 points against the University of Montana in 1956, and as a pro 33 versus St. Louis in 1958. He played his high school basketball at Willits, Calif. (3 years), and at Redding, Calif. (1 year). He has twin brothers, Larry and Perry, who made all-city at North Central High in Spokane. Phil is an accomplished guitar player and has umpired in Little League baseball.

WHITEY MARTIN

Age*—22, born in Buffalo, N. Y., April 11, 1939

Height*—6 feet 2 inches. Weight—185 pounds

Home*—Buffalo, N. Y. College—St. Bonaventure

Co-captained St. Bonaventure last season with Tom Stith. Outstanding playmaker for the Bonnies the past two years and one of the best defensive players in college competition. He has exceptionally quick hands and a good two-hand set shot. His scoring average for two campaigns was 12.5, but his true value to the Bonnies was "setting up" the high scoring pair of Stith and Fred Crawford. "Martin is a heck of a guard," said Knick coach Eddie Donovan, former St. Bonaventure mentor. "He's a real hard nosed, quick-moving kid who fights all the way. On defense for the Bonnies he always drew the other team's best scorer. He is a better offense player than his average indicates. He knew he could help us the most by getting the ball to Stith and Crawford." Whitey is a product of Buffalo's Timon High School. He was cut from high school team in both sophomore and junior season. Whitey was only 5-6 at the time, but played with college-aged players in independent ball. He grew four inches and made team in senior year and was the leading scorer with 18 point average. Married to a nurse, Leanora, last August.

Height*—6 feet 6½ inches. Weight—225 pounds

Home*—Los Angeles, Calif. College—UCLA

Naulls set an all-time Knicks scoring record last season with 1,846 points in 79 games for a 23.4 average, seventh best performance in the NBA. He also led New York in rebounds for the fourth straight year. His 1,055 total last Winter was sixth in the league. This is his sixth year with the Knicks. The former UCLA ace, named to the East All Star Team three of the past four years, averaged better than 21 points against all league rivals. His best single game performance last season was 40 points versus Detroit, in Madison Square Garden, Feb. 7, when his 23 field goals broke the former club mark of 18 held jointly by Richie Guerin and Carl Braun. Naulls was second in team scoring to Guerin in 1959-60 with 1,388 points for a 21.3 average. He missed 10 games that campaign because of injuries. Willie, an All-America at UCLA, was drafted by the St. Louis Hawks in 1956. After 19 games he was traded to New York for Slater Martin, Dec. 10, 1956. The following campaign he was runner-up to Kenny Sears in Knick scoring with an 18.1 average and in 1958-59 he was third to Sears and Guerin with 15.7. Willie led UCLA to the Pacific Coast Conference title in his senior year, setting a new school mark of 661 points in 28 games, an average of 23.6. He was the first Bruin ever to top 600 in one campaign. Willie first showed in the Garden in 1955 with UCLA in the Holiday Festival. The Bruins lost the final to San Francisco, but Naulls outscored Bill Russell, 71-67, for three games and 18-17 in the championship test.

BILL SMITH

Age*—23, Born in Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 24, 1938

Height*—6 feet 5 inches. Weight—190 pounds

Home*—Jersey City, N. J. College—St. Peter's

Rookie Bill Smith averaged 25 points a game for three years with St. Peter's College (Jersey City). He was a unanimous selection for the 1961 All-Met Area first team. Bill captained St. Peter's last season and holds all of the Peacock's major scoring records. He was the first St. Peter's player to top 1,000 points (1,036) at the end of his junior year. His three-season total was 1,612. Before entering St. Peter's, Smith attended Jersey City's Dickinson High and New York Military Academy. Don Kennedy, St. Peter's coach, said: "Smith is the type of player who could go well in the pros. He's big enough, quick enough, aggressive and he has the necessary shots. Although 6-5, normally the height of a college forward, Bill played a lot of backcourt for us because he's an excellent ball handler as well as a scorer." Smith was vice president of his freshman and sophomore classes and president of his junior class. He married at the end of his junior term. Wife's name is Angie and the couple have a daughter, Lisa. He ran cross country in soph and junior years to stay in shape. "The team only had four runners," he says, "and needed a fifth."

SAM STITH

Age*—24, born in Greenville County, Va.

Height*—6 feet 2 inches. Weight—185 pounds

Home*—New York City. College—St. Bonaventure

Sam is the older brother of Tom Stith with whom he co-starred for two seasons at St. Bonaventure University. The New York Knicks acquired Sam last Summer from the Cincinnati Royals, who drafted him in April of 1960. However, after being graduated from St. Bonaventure he was called to military service and did not join the Royals. Sam captained the Bonnies in his senior year when he averaged 19.5 points. That campaign the Stith brothers had a combined total of 51.5 points per game. Sam first hit the basketball headlines at St. Frances Prep, Brooklyn, twice being named to the All-Met Area team. As a Knick, Sam rejoins his St. Bonaventure mentor, Eddie Donovan, now coach of the Madison Square Garden squad. "I am very happy to have Sam," said Donovan. "He has the qualities of a good backcourt man. He's quick on the fast break and in moving the ball downcourt. He spots the open man, gets his jump shots away rapidly and accurately and he's better than average on defense."

ED BURTON

Age*—22, born Aug. 13, 1939, in Blythville, Ark.

Height*—6 feet 6 inches. Weight—235 pounds

Home*—Muskegon, Mich. College—Michigan State

In spite of his rookie status in the NBA, Burton has been around. He was born in Arkansas, but his family moved to Michigan when he was two years old, and he has been on the move ever since. After setting two Michigan high school scoring records he entered Michigan State, but quit after his freshman year to join the Harlem Globetrotters. For the next eighteen months he toured with the Trotters, playing in every state of the Union alongside Wilt Chamberlain. In one three day period in Alaska the temperature was 45 degrees below zero. Ed quit the Globetrotters two years ago when he married, and joined the Allentown team in the Eastern League. He helped Allentown win the league championship last winter. His best single game with Allentown was 37 points against Wilkes-Barre.

DON FRIEDERICHS—Team Trainer

This is Don's 11th season with the Knicks as trainer and road secretary. He's proud of his record of not losing a single Knick on a road trip in the past ten years, but his main job is to keep them healthy.

Friederichs is a bouncy, inexhaustible bundle of activity—the mother hen type—who, on occasions, has been known to disagree with a referee's call. He's very clever at it. He's never been fined, even though he's the end man on the Knicks' bench.

Don's duties are varied and numerous. He's the first man in the dressing room, the last to leave. He's a cut mender, weight watcher, vitamins dispenser, diagnostician, tape wrapper, gripe listener, and chief hurry-upper for trains and planes. He had a string of 646 games without a miss before a death in the family broke it in December of 1958.

Friederichs estimates he has wound up some 80 miles of adhesive tape around various Knicks. He has no thought of turning in his medicine kit. He likes his job. "After all, I've got the best seat in the house," he said.

Don is 38 years old, the grandpappy of the squad, and originally from Detroit. He spent nearly five years in the Coast Guard as a pharmacist mate, then two years at the University of Detroit medical school with intentions of becoming a dentist. He gave that up to enter a trainers' school in Florida, worked one year for the Lakeland baseball club then headed for New York and the Knicks. Don lives in Englewood, N. J. Summer of 1960 he was the trainer for the Richmond Virginians, a farm club of the New York Yankees.
